

Were you charged or convicted under former Tasmanian laws against homosexuality or cross-dressing?

It should never have been a crime

You may be eligible for a payment from $15,000 to $75,000 from the Tasmanian Government if you successfully apply to have an eligible charge or conviction removed from your record.

Find out more at:
www.ehos.tas.gov.au
or by calling 1300 156 545

This is about acknowledgement and justice for those gay, bisexual and transgender Tasmanians persecuted because of who they were. No-one can change the past but the future can be better.

Rodney Croome

Were you charged or convicted under former Tasmanian laws against homosexuality or cross-dressing?

It should never have been a crime

You may be eligible for a payment from $15,000 to $75,000 from the Tasmanian Government if you successfully apply to have an eligible charge or conviction removed from your record.

Find out more at
www.ehos.tas.gov.au
or by calling 1300 156 545

